

Apply to Study at Stanford University in the USA

Applications close 12 September

The Stanford Australia Foundation (SAF), in partnership with the Australian Scholarships Foundation (ASF), is pleased to once again support not-for-profit leaders with an opportunity to study at Stanford Graduate School of Business in the United States.

SAF are currently offering one scholarship specifically for NFP leaders to attend one of Stanford University's highly valued executive education programs in 2019. Stanford teaches leaders to be pioneers of the modern frontier, to think critically, challenge assumptions and change the rules of competition.

The 2019 Stanford Australia Foundation Scholarship includes up to A$20,000 (for course fees and economy travel) for a NFP executive to undertake a study tour and attend a Stanford Graduate School of Business (GSB) executive course of the recipient's choice, including the celebrated Exec

Executive Program for Non-Profit Leaders

and the Executive Program in Social Entrepreneurship

. Six months of mentoring from a Stanford alumnus living in Australia will also be offered together with complimentary membership in the Stanford Australia Association.

This is an incredible opportunity for not-for-profit executives and leaders to gain essential skills and experience, whilst enhancing the effectiveness of their organisation and the wider Australian community.

Click HERE to find out more and apply via ASF's website. Applications close Wednesday 12 September 2018 at 5pm AEST. Get in quick!