

Diploma of Business \(Governance\) for WA NFPs

Applications close Wednesday 13 March

For too long, not-for-profit board members and their supporters have put up with a second-rate reputation and second-rate education. That's set to change.

We have partnered with Bankwest Foundation and the Institute of Community Directors Australia (ICDA) to offer 10x 100% scholarships to attend the ICDA's Diploma of Business \(Governance\) program in 2019

. The Diploma of Business (Governance) is Australia's only currently approved diploma-level governance qualification. This qualification is recognised nationally and will provide you with the knowledge and skills you need to sit on or work with boards at the highest level.

"Having knowledgeable, confident board members is invaluable for the organisation. I have the confidence to enquire more deeply and also have a better understanding of my role and responsibilities, knowing where I can add value to the organisation as a board member." ~ says a past scholarship recipient

The course is designed specifically for Australian not-for-profit board/committee members, and the CEOs, managers and senior staff who work alongside them. Both prospective and current members of boards are eligible to apply, though some deep knowledge of a not-for-profit organisation is highly desirable.

Successful applicants will receive a $4,495 scholarship which covers all associated course fees for the intensive Diploma, held over six days in May and July 2019.
